Howdy!

My name is Isabel Morales, but you can call me Bel. I enjoy expressing myself artistically through illustration and to others through writing stories, which help elevate my skills as a Designer.

What I Do

Web Internship, Tribu Creative LLC

Designed and built wordpress web pages and assets. Also managed multiple websites' health daily while implementing updates as needed.

Student Employee, UIW Development Center

Completed daily clerical tasks such as running phone calls, managing excel sheets, took inventory, and designed email and web campaigns. Increased expertise in Microsoft word and excel.

AIGA UIW Student Board Member

Organized membership information, designed social media posts, managed events, and facilitated social activities between students.

Honors Program Member

Demonstrated academic excellence and committed to expanding artistic, cultural, personal, and scholastic worldviews through experience.
